ALUM CHOSEN AS FALL INTERN FOR SENATOR ALEXANDER

2015 Riverside Christian Academy graduate, Ryan Eldridge, has been chosen to serve as an intern in Senator Lama Alexander's Washington, D.C. offices this fall. During this internship, Ryan will be working with the Senator's staff in the Senate Committee on Health, Education, Labor and Pensions (HELP Committee) as well as in the Senator's personal office.

Ryan has also had the opportunity to work in two other local internships during his college breaks. One with Chancellor J.B. Cox, and the other was for District Attorney, Rob Carter.

He is currently in a dual degree program at Freed-Hardeman University, and is projected to graduate in 2019 with a Bachelor's degree and an MBA. Ryan's future plans are to continue his education in pursuit of a law degree.
